TE URI O HAU SUBMISSIONS:
367.70	Te Uri o Hau	Strategic Direction	Amend	ADD new objectives and policies around Integrated Management and avoiding adverse effects of development on freshwater bodies. Include provision of avoiding development and minimizing effects on freshwater bodies identified as significant by mana whenua in Deed of Settlement and other iwi and hapū planning documents.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> It is unclear what the Natural Environment objectives are seeking to achieve or why the Natural Environment Values are separated out from the strategic direction chapter. There is also no objective for support in rural character or environment, and no mention of protecting and preserving mana whenua values in these areas. There is also no mention of protecting mana whenua values in the natural environment, in particular freshwater bodies including the receiving environment. This is inconsistent with the National Policy Statement for Freshwater Management, the Hierarchy of Obligations and in particular Objective 2.1(1) and Policies 2, 3, and 4.
367.72	Te Uri o Hau	Strategic Direction		ADD new policies to the Strategic Directions -Tangata Whenua, including the following: Enabling mana whenua to exercise Rangatiratanga and Kaitiakitanga <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Also: to ensure that in the use, development, and protection of natura land physical resources, the views and interests of the tangata whenua are fully represented at every stage of the process, including the preparation and implementation of the District Plan 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is no detail on issues of significance to mana whenua. There is only one Objective under the Strategic Direction which implies that there are no issues, other than ‘recognising and providing for’ tangata whenua relationship with lands, water, sites wāhi tapu, and other taonga. We agree with this Objective, but request that amendments are made in the PDP to include more objectives, policies and methods that support the aspirations of Te Uri o Hau.
