Council Promotes Host Responsibility

What is Host Responsibility?

Host Responsibility is being responsible for the consumption of alcohol at any venue to reduce the problems that can be caused from excessive drinking.

Hosts are expected to ensure that Host Responsibility is followed at all times while alcohol is being served or consumed. This means:

- 1 Provide and promote substantial food as long as alcohol is being consumed.
- 2 Provide and promote non-alcoholic and low alcohol beverages.
- 3 Offer free non-alcoholic drinks to designated drivers.
- 4 Have a telephone accessible for your patrons to use to arrange transport options.
- 5 Ensure that alcohol is not consumed by intoxicated persons and minors.
- 6 Clean drinking water must be freely available and supplied free of charge.
