

the way forward

strategy

Limit the scale and extent of light industrial development by appropriate zoning

Manage traffic and safety issues implementation

Policy Area 'zone' to focus on small scale development provider for future needs

Change of use assessed on application of design principle guidelines through Controlled and Restricted Discretionary activity management process

Buffer planting design should not compromise access way traffic safety or inhibit safe viewing distances for site access and exit including that required for the safe movement of heavy goods vehicles

